Section 1 – About

1.1 – Introduction Letter

Dear Members, Coaches, Judges, Gymnasts, and Supporters,

Happy New Year and welcome to the England Trampoline and Double Mini Trampoline Disability Handbook for 2026.

As we begin a new year of training and competition, we would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued commitment, passion, and support of disability trampoline and double mini trampoline across England. Your dedication plays a vital role in creating an inclusive, supportive, and progressive competitive environment for all gymnasts.

For 2026, the handbook remains largely consistent with previous seasons, ensuring continuity and clarity for coaches and athletes alike. However, we have listened carefully to feedback provided by coaches during the 2025 season. As a result, we have made the considered decision to remove Time of Flight from the overall score. We believe this adjustment better supports athlete development, fairness, and accessibility within disability competition, while maintaining the integrity of performance assessment.

We are also pleased to confirm that we continue to move forward positively with Double Mini Trampoline competition, which remains an important and growing pathway within the disability programme. We look forward to seeing this discipline further develop throughout the 2026 season.

As always, we encourage all coaches, gymnasts, and officials to familiarise themselves fully with the contents of this handbook to ensure a smooth and enjoyable competition experience for everyone involved.

We wish you all a successful, rewarding, and enjoyable year ahead and look forward to another fantastic season of England Disability Trampoline and Double Mini Trampoline competition.

Yours in Sport,

Stephen Wood
